MCs + Panel Moderator

Floater, Troubleshooters, Timekeepers

Table Lead Discussion

YLI'S ROLE

- Montze, April, Jarrett and a YLI youth reporter
- Montze and April: “Behind the scenes” coaching, assisting when/where needed, and supporting you all
- Jarrett and a YLI youth reporter: Capturing the awesomeness with photos and video

BREAKOUT BY ROLES

Let's do gallery walk of the roles, we'll walk through the main responsibilities of each of these roles and hear from folks who have been in that role before

A large, faint, light pink watermark logo is visible in the bottom right corner of the slide. It consists of a large, stylized lowercase 'v' followed by lowercase 'li' in a bold, sans-serif font, all contained within a circular shape.

FACILITATION TEAM ROLES

MCs + Panel Moderator Keep the agenda moving, keep energy high, present important information. Guide systems mapping example.

Floater and Trouble Shooters Float around to different groups or conversations to answer questions or support your fellow team members + Timekeepers Ensure all agenda items stay on time; support team in staying on track and on time

FACILITATION TEAM ROLES

Cheerleaders Support your team and audience in staying positive and energized throughout the day. This may include facilitating energizers and icebreakers throughout the day.

FACILITATION TEAM ROLES

Table Leads Support and guide small group conversations and activities by keeping the conversation flowing and ensuring everyone has an opportunity to speak; may include taking notes during small group discussions.

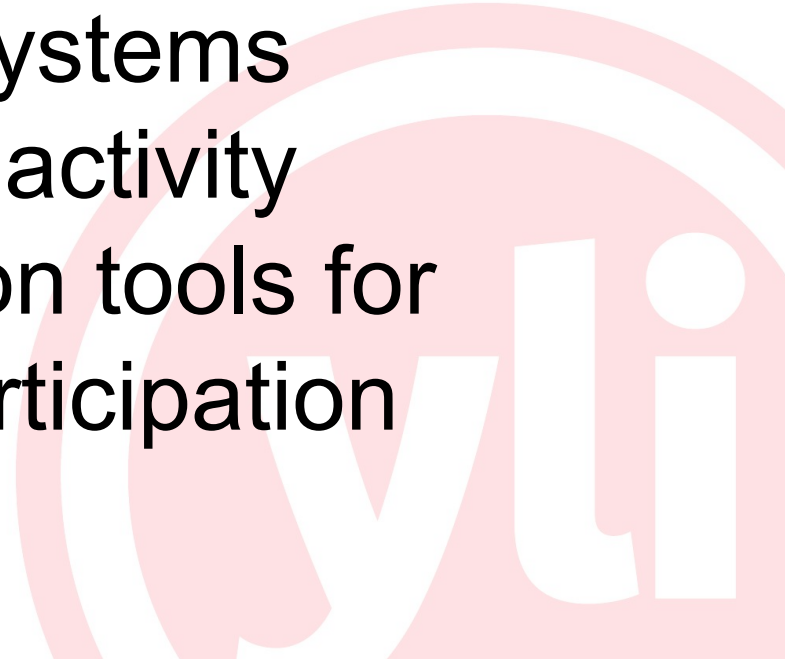

Supported by ACT team, led by Jennifer Lopez!

- Additional facilitator, notetaker, etc
- Worked to tailor System Mapping to Sprouted Concept Framework

REVIEW AND PRACTICE OF SYSTEMS MAPPING FACILITATION GUIDE

1. Facilitate systems mapping activity
2. Facilitation tools for group participation

POWER MAPPING ACTIVITY

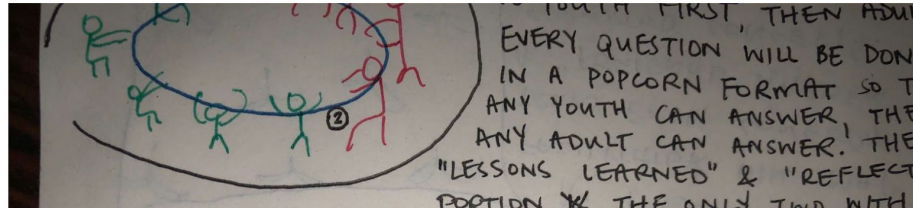

Phase 3: Power Mapping Activity

Materials needed per group: Large Poster Board for Power Map (1), Large Paper/Poster for Scribe (2), Proposed Solution shape (1), Lessons Learned shape (8), Sprouted Concept shape (1), Rich Soil shape (10), Weeds shape (10), pens (10), set of markers (1).

The goal of this activity is to bring together youth and adult allies' lived experiences, diverse expertise, and varying levels of power to produce a sprouted concept for a youth-led innovation of California's school-based mental health system.

For each round described below, the facilitator should start by opening up to youth first, and then going to the adults when youth have finished submitting answers.

1. Clarify and re-read the solution that is proposed through the multimedia voice piece.
 - a. Write down the proposed solution on a "Proposed Solution" shape
 - b. Place it on the top center of the power map

Leading is about learning to be a facilitator.

- ASHIF SHAIKH

ROLE OF THE FACILITATOR

- To create a forum for group discussion
- To educate
- To articulate and respond to the questions and concerns of group members
- To clarify and address issues

LISTENING TOOLS

Paraphrasing

1. Using your own words to explain what the speaker said
2. Summarize long statements
3. "It sounds like you were saying_____. Did I get that right?"

Mirroring

Repeat the speaker's words as closely as possible

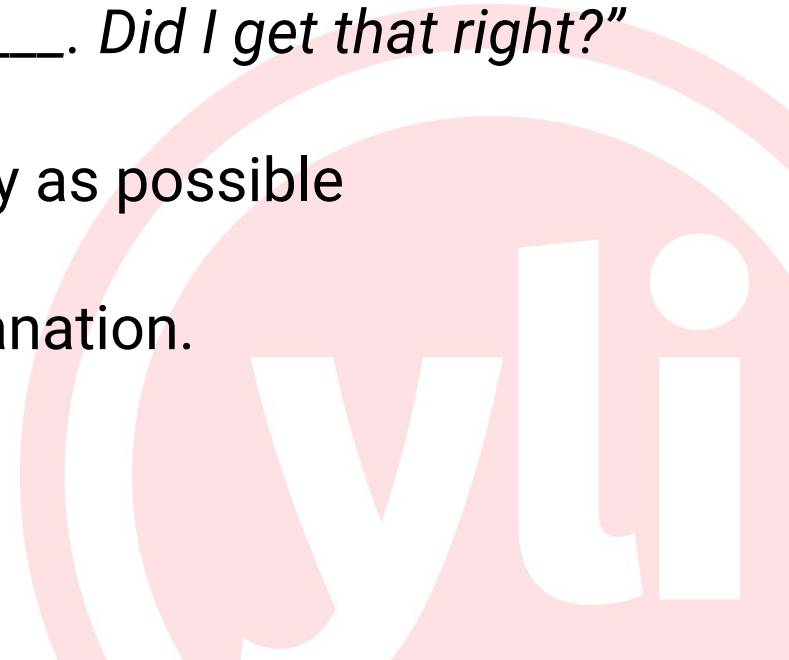

Drawing people out

Use your words to prompt more explanation.

EX. "Please say more about that?"

Summarizing

Recap main points

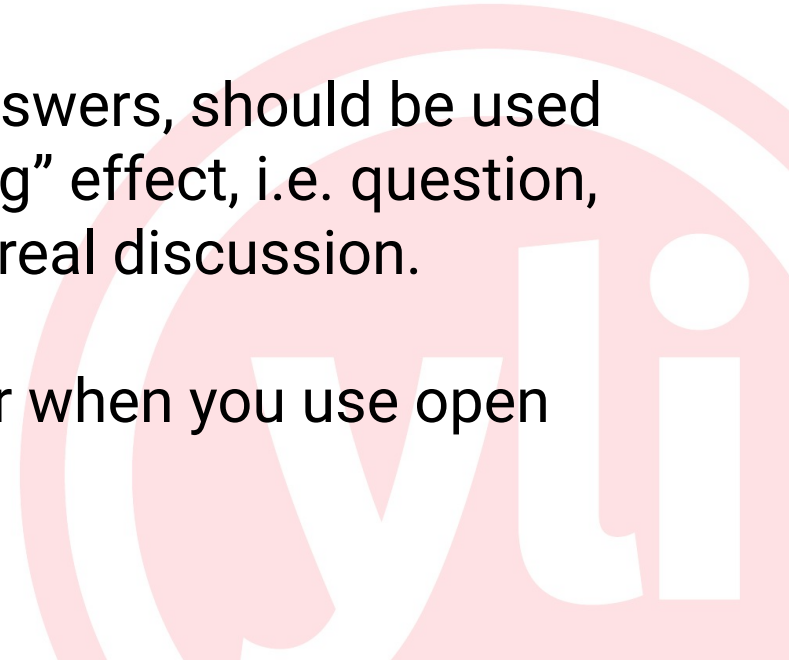

LISTENING TOOLS: QUESTIONS

1. Open Questions—solicits information that requires more than yes/no answers. They begin with WHO, WHAT, WHEN, WHERE, WHY and HOW.

2. Closed Questions—solicit yes/no answers, should be used sparingly as they can have a “ping-pong” effect, i.e. question, answer, question, answer, etc. with no real discussion.

It is important to be a good listener when you use open questions.
