

Bay Area Black Health Care Forum
An Event of the Mental Health Services Oversight and Accountability Commission's Project on Criminal Justice and Mental Health

April 29, 2017
11:00 am to 3:00 pm
New Providence Baptist Church
218 Granada Avenue
San Francisco, CA 94112

MEETING AGENDA

11:00 am – Welcome and Ice Breaker

- Commissioner and Sheriff Bill Brown, Mental Health Services Oversight and Accountability Commission
- Vanessa Jackson, CEO and E. Douglas Brewer, Moms Saving Our Sons' Lives Ministry
 - “What mental health looks like to me”

11:30 am – Opening Keynote: Walking Through Drama/Trauma

- Ida P. McCray, MA, MPH, CDVF, Professor, City College of San Francisco, Director of Families with a Future, and Domestic Violence Liaison
 - Questions and Answers

12:00 pm - Community Resources Open Mic

- Open forum to share currently available resources in the community

12:30 pm – Break Out 1 (Session A or B)

SESSION A: Traumatization from Violence and Healing the Community; facilitated by Cheeko Wells, Community and Response Team Coordinator, Department of Public Health

SESSION B: Mental Health Double-Dutch: How and when to “jump in” and help someone with a mental health need; facilitated by DeBorah Young-Hall, Behavioral Health Specialist, UCSF Department of Psychiatry Division of Substance Abuse and Addiction Medicine (DSAAM)

1:00 pm – Break Out 2 (Session A go to B; Session B go to A)

1:30 pm - Break

1:45 pm – Break Out Report Back and Discussion

2:15 pm – Closing Keynote: From Incarcerated to Advocate

- Minata McKnight, Director of Community Engagement at Justice Now
 - Questions and Answers

2:45 pm – Steps to Move Forward

3:00 pm - Close