1	General	As we prepare [the] grant application for the TAY advocacy grant, I wanted to confirm that it's acceptable to attach supporting and supplemental documents to an appendices section at the end of the application. Or, would you prefer to have supporting documents included immediately after each attachment section?	Please follow the RFP requirements for preparing your proposal. Section VII.B. states, Proposals are to be prepared in such a way as to provide a straightforward, concise explanation of capabilities to satisfy the requirements of this RFP. Colored displays, promotional materials, etc., are not necessary or desired. Emphasis should be concentrated on conformance to the RFP instructions, responsiveness to the RFP requirements, and on completeness and clarity of content. Proposers are encouraged to submit their proposal in either a Word format or a searchable PDF format. Proposers are responsible for ensuring all pages, attachments and signatures are included in the proposal. In addition, Proposer is responsible for ensuring all pages on the Proposal are legible.
